FOLLOWING JESUS IN BOSSIER: A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Rev. Donnie Wilkinson, Senior Pastor

Looking Back, Looking Ahead

The beginning of a new year has a way of inviting a particular kind of faithfulness—not just remembering where we’ve been or imagining where we might go, but asking what faithfulness looks like here and now, in the time and place we’ve been given.

As I reflect on our first six months together at First United Methodist Church of Bossier City, a few moments rise immediately to the surface.

On Christmas Eve, our sanctuary was filled—nearly 400 people gathered, candles glowing, voices lifted as we sang Silent Night. It was one of those moments when the room itself seemed to hold its breath, when light pressed gently against darkness and hope felt tangible.

Just days earlier, on December 21, the longest night of the year, we gathered for our first Yoga Church. About thirty people from our congregation and the wider community came together to bend and breathe, to quiet their bodies and open their hearts, to create space to encounter Christ in Scripture and at the Table. One participant shared with me afterward, with tears in her eyes, that it was one of the most holy experiences she had ever had.

Different scale. Same Spirit.

What struck me in those moments was not just their beauty, but their difference—how the same Spirit met people in very different ways, shaped by the realities of their lives right now.

That same pattern repeated itself throughout Advent and Christmas. Our Home for Christmas gathering filled the Fellowship Hall with families from Barksdale Air Force Base and our First Friends preschool. At one point, a young airwoman stepped up to the microphone during karaoke and delivered a stunning rendition of The Christmas Song. For a moment, strangers became neighbors. A church became a living room.

And at Rusheon Middle School, something subtle but significant shifted. When we began the Donut Drop in October, many students kept their distance. By December, they were running toward us. That kind of trust doesn’t happen overnight. It happens through presence, consistency, and care.

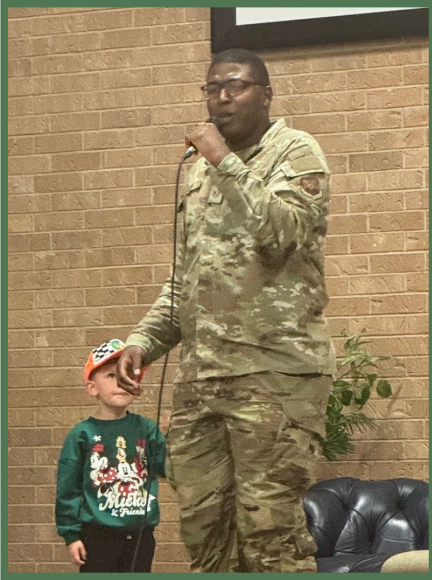

As I’ve reflected on these moments, I’ve realized something important. I didn’t bring God with me to First Bossier. God was already here.

Like Jacob waking from his dream at Bethel, I’ve found myself thinking, “Surely the Lord is in this place—and I did not know it.” What I’ve discovered is a congregation with deep roots of welcome, generosity, and service—roots planted long before I arrived, now stirring again for a new season.

That work, renewing the life of our community by helping people become fully alive in Christ, is both beautiful and demanding. It requires honesty as well as hope, especially when it comes to our shared life and resources. (Continued inside.)

A WORD FROM THE PRAYER ROOM

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT OUR STAFF AT OFFICE@FUMCBOSSIER.ORG

We have just experienced a wonderful period of love, joy and good will. Hope also played a strong role. We experienced all this and more as we welcomed the birthday of Jesus, our Hope for all eternity. Is it possible to hold on to those good feelings as we enter the new year?

Hope-Pause a moment and consider what it means to you. Anticipation, dreams, trust, actions, love, brightness? I could not but think of the coming of Epiphany. Some christian groups honor January 6 each year as we honor the three kings who traveled long and far to pay tribute to our Blessed Jesus. Surely hope was strong within them.

The Old Testament does not dwell on the idea of hope so much, but it has its fulfillment in Jesus' time on earth. Our hope lies in the fact that we must always look ahead, not back as we grow in wisdom and knowledge of what Jesus means to us, how Jesus became man to show us His love is real, ever present and it is eternal.

Our church is entering a new period which also leads us to prayerfully seek paths we need to follow. Hope as well as trust, love, joy, actions, etc. god sent Jesus, His Son, to the world at His time to bring new life to the world. As we reflect on the good feelings experienced during advent, may we strive to become more aware of our own hope to be more like the One who loves us best.

Happy New Year! It certainly has been very quiet around here after all the events during the Christmas season. The Cantata filled the air with beautiful voices singing glorious seasonal songs. The eyes of the small children watching the lit candles is a sight that brings delight to your heart. 2026 is here! Many people talk about "a New Year's resolution"....something they plan to do to change their life in a good way. I wonder how many accomplish their plan during the year. Here are some thoughts to ponder as you think about the start of a New Year.

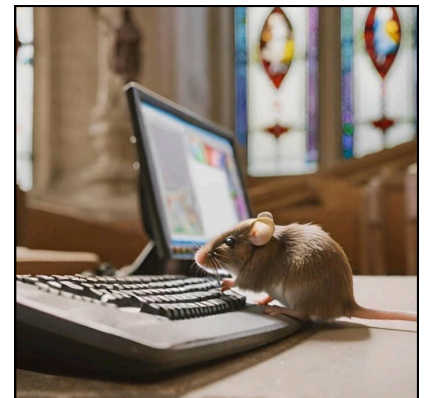

"In the New Year, never forget to thank your past years because they enabled you to reach today! Without the stairs of the past, you cannot arrive at the future!" — Mehmet Murat Ildan

"As the old year retires and a new one is born, we commit into the hands of our Creator the happenings of the past year and ask for direction and guidance in the new one. May He grant us His grace, His tranquility and His wisdom!" —Peggy Toney Horton

"Year's end is neither an end nor a beginning but a going on, with all the wisdom that experience can instill in us." —Hal Borland

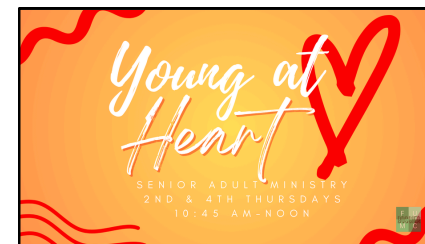

Church Mouse plans to be more careful with so many activities happening, especially in the kitchen.

Happy New Year,
Church Mouse

FUMC FUN FACTS

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT OUR STAFF AT OFFICE@FUMCBOSSIER.ORG

Keeping with the spirit of the season, here are a few lighthearted fun facts inspired by church life and the New Year!

- Coffee has become one of the most common modern “ministries” in churches ☕🍩❤️ So go hang out in the cafe and
- The church calendar actually starts in Advent, not January—so the church gets a “new year” before everyone else 🕯️🌟📅 17
- God shows up even when the bulletin has a typo 😊🙏📝

These little moments remind us that church life is made up of both meaningful traditions and everyday joy. At FUMC Bossier, faith, fellowship, and devotion have shaped our story—and we look forward to how each of us will continue to add to it in the days ahead.

Sweet Potato Hash

Yield: Serves 6
Prep Time: 15 minutes
Cook Time: 45 minutes

Ingredients

- 1 lb ground breakfast sausage
- 1 onion, diced
- 4 medium-size sweet potatoes, diced
- 2 tsp thyme
- 1 tsp black pepper
- 1-1½ tsp salt, to taste
- 1-2 tbsp oil or butter (if needed)

Instructions

1. Preheat oven to 375°F.
2. In a large oven-safe skillet, cook sausage and onions together over medium heat until sausage is browned. Remove mixture to a bowl.
3. If the pan is dry, add oil or butter. Add sweet potatoes and seasonings. Sauté about 10 minutes, stirring occasionally, until potatoes begin to brown.
4. Add sausage and onions back to the pan with the potatoes and stir to combine.
5. Transfer to the oven and bake for about 30 minutes, or until potatoes are tender.

Notes

- To add eggs: Remove hash from oven after 20 minutes. Make small wells and crack eggs on top. Return to oven for about 10 minutes, or until eggs are set.
- If you don't have an oven-safe pan, transfer the hash to a baking sheet to finish cooking.

Part of serving faithfully in this season is telling the truth about what it takes to be a church that is present and engaged in today’s world.

All of the ministries we are starting and strengthening are made possible through the generosity of God’s people. Our financial position today is stronger than it was six months ago, thanks in part to the sale of the Mayfair Street parsonage and the steady earnings from our endowment funds at the Methodist Foundation of Louisiana. Expenses are being carefully managed.

And still, the reality is that many of the church’s fixed costs—insurance, utilities, facilities maintenance—have risen sharply over the last several years. We are absorbing those increases while striving to do more with less in the ministries most central to our mission. I am deeply grateful to everyone who has supported Light the Day, helping cover the daily cost of operating a seven-day-a-week church. Many have increased their giving, and that generosity matters more than you know.

In the year ahead, we will also begin exploring thoughtful, mission-aligned ways of making better use of our campus as potential sources of revenue—an increasingly necessary step for churches who intend to serve their communities fully in this season.

Looking forward, I am filled with hope.

I look forward to deepening our relationships with military families as we grow into what it truly means to be a “Blue Star Church”—a place of community, care, and a home away from home for those stationed at Barksdale. I look forward to taking the next step in our outreach to students at Rusheon Middle School by relaunching an after-school program adapted to the real needs of today’s families. I am eager to see how Yoga Church continues to create space for those who might never connect with a traditional church experience. And I am especially excited for the launch of Table of Grace, our dinner church ministry, as we move from charity to community—sharing meals, stories, and the love of Jesus with our neighbors.

Again and again, I find myself asking what it means for us to be faithful in the time we’ve been given.

As I think about all of this, I keep returning to an old Methodist hymn: “A Charge to Keep I Have.” It reminds us that faithfulness is not about preserving the past unchanged, but about responding, again and again, to the call of God in the present moment. The second verse names our shared calling as clearly as anything I know:

To serve the present age,
my calling to fulfill,
O may it all my pow’rs engage to do my Master’s will!

As we begin this new year together, my prayer is simple: that we would look back with gratitude, look ahead with courage, and move forward together—serving the present age, fully alive in Christ.

Grace and peace,
Donnie

Each month, we highlight a podcast, book, song, or other resource to encourage reflection, growth, and connection in your faith journey. Whether it’s music that uplifts, a book that inspires, or a podcast that sparks conversation, our monthly pick is chosen to nourish your spirit and spark meaningful moments in your life. To start off the new year, Sarah Bowers has selected this month’s pick.

For January, Sarah chose two songs—one choral and one praise—to help guide us into this next chapter.

Let My Love Be Heard by Jake Runestad is a beautiful choral song asking angels to carry our grief and personal pleas to God in difficult times and ask that our "love be heard whispering in your wings". The piece has become an anthem for those grieving. I personally find it meditative and the message focusing on the things we need as we enter a new chapter and leave behind our hardships.

God Ain't Finished Yet by Emerson Day is an upbeat song about God working through us. We are entering a new year of continuing to trust in God's plan.

"I woke up and I'm breathing again.
So, God ain't finished."

Together, these songs hold space for both reflection and hope—grief and joy—as we begin anew.
